

Data recording procedures for quality of stroke services

Neurological Information Center, Prasat Neurological Institute, Department of Medical Services

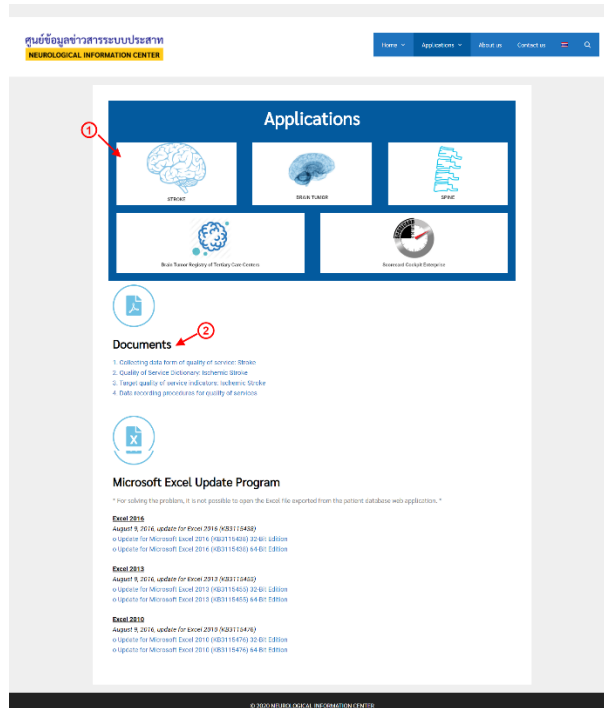

(Updated January 2020)

1. Visit the link: <http://neuronetworks.org/en/>

1.1 Select the Application menu.

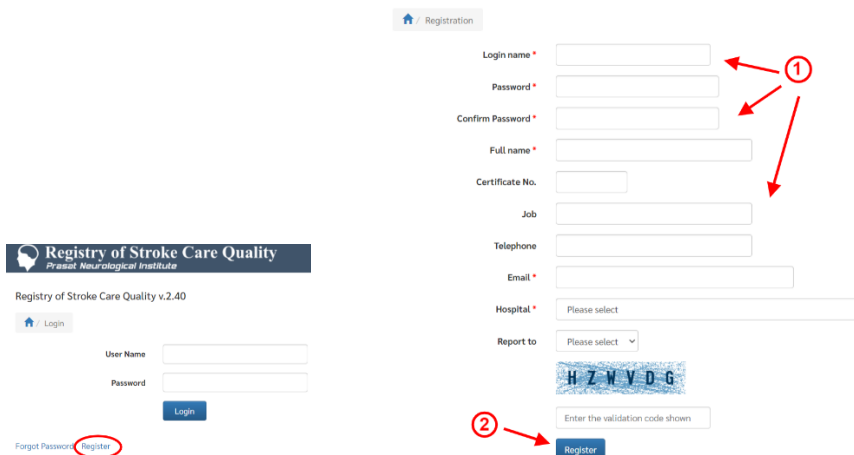

1.2 Select STROKE Button

1.3 Study the information related to indexes and the overall information in the documents content link.

2. Register by selected the menu "Register" and fill in the details.

Note: 1. Each hospital can register as a member with unlimited users, and will only receive its own hospital data.

2. Only one member will be entitled to use the information. Hospital administrator can use the information of every user in the hospital.

3. Enter your username and password and log in as follows:

3.1 Enter the menu "Action" -> "Collecting data" and select click button "+"

3.2 Record all information and then press "Save" button.

Registry of Stroke Care Quality v.2.40

Home / Collecting data / Add

ID Card

A1: First name - Last name

A2: HN *

A3: Age *

A4: Sex *

A5: Healthcare coverage

A6: Referral from other healthcare facility

3.3 Fill out the remaining information. (Can always come back and fill in again)

Registry of Stroke Care Quality v.2.40

Home / Collecting data / Edit

A1-A6 : Stroke patient data A7 : History illness/risk/joint diseases. B1-B19 : Clinical data C2-C12 : Indicators in ischemic stroke patient care C13-C21 : Indicators in ischemic stroke patient care

D1-D3 : Intracerebral Hemorrhage E1-E2 : Subarachnoid hemorrhage F1 : Cerebral venous thrombosis

Hospital network Yangon General Hospital

ID Card

A1: First name - Last name

A2: HN *

A3: Age *

A4: Sex *

A5: Healthcare coverage

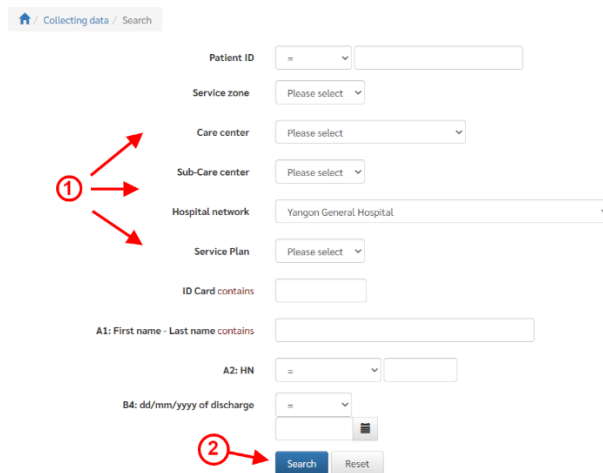

A6: Referral from other healthcare facility

Note: 1. Please, select the date via click calendar button only.
2. Time separated by ":" example "08:30"

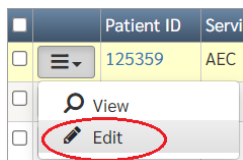

4. Editing information or Database retrieval for use / validation

4.1 Click “Advance Search”  button

4.2 Select criteria of data and then press "Search" button.

4.3 Select the record you want to edit and click  menu button and then select menu “Edit”

4.4 Fill out the remaining information.

Registry of Stroke Care Quality v.2.40

